

Summer School 2018

Open Enrollment and Tuition Based Information

Sun Prairie Area
School District
Futures depend on us...every child, every day.

Some non-resident, open-enrolled, and new to the district families have asked the following questions:

Question: May non-resident children participate in Summer School?

- Yes. A non-resident parent/guardian may enroll their children in the district and register their children for Summer School on a tuition basis.

Question: What is the cost of tuition for Summer School 2018?

- Tuition costs for Summer School 2018 are:
 - High School or Prairie Phoenix Academy
 - Initial Credit - $487.10 (.5 credit), $234.55 (.25 credit), $974.17 (1 credit)
 - Elementary, Middle, Upper Middle
 - 3 week sessions - $121.77 (for each 3 week session)
 - 6 week sessions - $243.54 (for the entire 6 week session)

Question: May non-resident children who were open-enrolled in the Sun Prairie Area School District participate in Summer School?

- Yes. A non-resident student who has been approved for open enrollment during the current (2017-18) school year, can register and participate in Summer School 2018 in the same manner as a district resident (no tuition beyond the fee that is charged for the class for all students).

Question: May my children attend Summer School as residents If my family is applying for open-enrollment for the upcoming (2018-19) school year, but we have not been approved?

- No. If your family is applying for open enrollment for the next (2018-19) school year, the children would not be eligible to attend Summer School 2018 as district residents, but could attend on a tuition basis.

Question: Are my children eligible to register for Summer School as district residents If my family moves into the district (with evidence of renting, purchasing, building, or the finalized signed plan to do so) and we have enrolled our children in the district?

- Yes. Families who have established residency and have completed the required district enrollment process may register their children for Summer School as district residents. There is no tuition cost (beyond the fee that is charged for the class for all students).
